

Brief Profile of the Provost – Dr. (Mrs) Pauline Ngozi Ikwuegbu

Dr. (Mrs) Pauline Ngozi Ikwuegbu is the 7th substantive Provost of Federal College of Education, Eha-Amufu.

Prior to her appointment as Provost, Federal College of Education, Eha-Amfu, Dr. (Mrs) Pauline Ikwuegbu was an Alvan Ikoku Federal College of Education lecturer for more than two decades specializing in Educational Foundations and Administration. As a tertiary institution lecturer, Dr. (Mrs) Pauline Ikwuegbu served as Acting Dean School of Education; Head, Department of Educational Foundations and Administration; Chairman, Project Defence Panel; Chairman, College Timetable Committee; Chairman, Local Organizing Committee in International Conference in Education, Member, Linkages and Webmetrics Committee; Member, Accreditation Committee; Member, Provost Assignment Committee; Leader NCE: Resource Persons for Project Workshop, among numerous others.

Dr. (Mrs) Pauline Ikwuegbu is a registered member of Phi Delta Kappa Nigeria; Igbo Studies Association, USA; Commonwealth Council for Educational Administration and Management; Member, Gender Association of Nigeria; Member, Forum for African Women in Educationalists; Member, Home Economics Teachers Association of Nigeria; Member, Teachers Registration Council of Nigeria; Member, National Association of Educational Administration and Planning; Member, The Institute for International Studies, Research and Development and a fulltime member of Women in Colleges of Education (WICE).

Dr (Mrs) Pauline has over 80 academic publications, including six mainline books, 24 contribution to books and over 45 articles published locally and internationally in reputable, peer reviewed journals. In the international scene, her penchant for academics is still not in doubt. She has attended world renowned conferences in Howard University, Washington D. C. United States of America; The Clute Institute New York City, USA;

San Francisco, United States of America; Hampton Inn and Suites Riverside, United States of America amongst numerous others.

She acquired her first degree from the Department of Home Economics, University of Uyo, formerly called University of Cross Rivers, graduating with an impressive grade of a Second Class Upper Division in 1990. Dr. Pauline proceeded to the prestigious University of Port Harcourt in 1996 and acquired a Master of Education in Educational Administration from where she also bagged a PhD in Educational Administration in the year 2002. She also bagged an NCE Certificate in 1981 from Alvan Ikoku Federal College of Education equally possessing a certificate in Information Technology since 2008.